GRENZEBACH AND GLIER NAMES
NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

(CHICAGO) January 26, 2008 Grenzebach Glier and Associates, the leading international fundraising consultancy headquartered here, has appointed James F. Hillman as Chief Operating Officer.

“Jim brings very substantive experience from the professional services and corporate sectors that will strengthen our financial systems and performance metrics,” said John J. Glier, GG+A’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “We expect Jim to provide leadership for our Chicago-based team in all areas of the firm’s international and national work. His expertise will play a major role in supporting our continued global expansion and ability to continue to provide superior counsel to our clients around the world.”

Hillman comes to GG+A from Blumont, Inc., a Naperville-based consultant to the telecommunications, technology and energy industries, where he was Managing Director. Previously, he held the position of Chief Financial Officer with Prime Therapeutics, LLC; Navigant Consulting, Inc.; and Ameritech SecurityLink, Inc. A Certified Public Accountant, he has over 25 years of experience in finance with responsibility for accounting, treasury, financial and strategic planning, reporting systems and processes, performance metrics, product and services costing methodologies and pricing.

Hillman has an MBA, Finance from the University of Chicago and a bachelor’s degree in Accounting from Loyola University of Chicago. He lives in Wheaton, IL.
