GRENZEBACH GLIER NAMES TWO NEW VICE PRESIDENTS

(CHICAGO) September 20, 2007 – Grenzebach Glier & Associates, Inc. (GG&A) is pleased to announce that Darryl C. Brown and Robert Ryan have each been appointed Vice President and Managing Director.

Darryl Brown joins the firm with nearly 30 years' experience in nonprofit management. He was President of Oxford University Development North America, Inc., leading Oxford's fundraising programs in the United States and Canada as part of its successful $500 million global campaign. He helped lead critical capital campaigns at New York University's Stern School of Business and The Museum of Modern Art. Most recently, he served clients in diverse nonprofit sectors as an independent consultant, and was Vice President and Director of Development for the National Audubon Society. He holds a B.A. from Indiana University and an M.A. from the State University of New York at Albany. He lives in the Greenwich Village section of New York City with his wife, Kim.

Robert Ryan has 15 years' fundraising experience in diverse nonprofit sectors in Canada and the United States. Most recently, he was a leader in the Public Television Major Giving Initiative, funded by the U.S. Corporation for Public Broadcasting in Washington, DC., increasing major gifts by 20% in the first year. In Canada, he played a key role in increasing deferred giving pledges by 30% for the University of Ottawa and growing annual major giving by 50% for CARE Canada, the nation's largest international development organization. He has extensive experience in planned giving, major gifts, corporate relations, Board training and campaigns, particularly with healthcare, cultural and higher education institutions. He holds a B.A. from Vassar College and a Master of Management for the Canadian Voluntary Sector from McGill University. He lives in Ottawa, Ontario.
