

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathryn Kane
(312) 372-4040

GG&A ANNOUNCES TWO NEW EXECUTIVES

(CHICAGO) May 14, 2007 – Grenzebach Glier & Associates, Inc. (GG&A) has added to its global headquarters here, according to President and CEO John J. Glier.

Terry Larkin, 50, has joined the firm as Chief Administrative Officer. She previously served as Deputy Chief Operating Officer for the State of Illinois' Department of Central Management Services.

Kathryn Kane, 59, has been named Vice President, Marketing. She formerly was Senior Vice President, Brand Management and Marketing, for the national Alzheimer's Association.

“GG&A's emphasis is on constantly evaluating and improving the quality of our practice,” Glier said. “We're pleased these two top-level professionals have joined our global headquarters staff.”

Grenzebach Glier & Associates, Inc. is a leading international philanthropic consulting firm, specializing in higher education, private schools, medical and healthcare institutions and cultural organizations. The firm has offices in Chicago, Montreal and London.

###